Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 24, to Saturday February 28, 1784.

St. James's, February 28.

THE following Addreſs of the Electors of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter has been preſented to the King by Sir Cecil Wray, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, accompanied by the Right Honourable Lord Viſcount Mahon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Electors of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Electors of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the moſt zealous Aſſurances of Loyalty to your Perſon, Family, and Government.

It was with the utmoſt Concern that we beheld an Attempt made by your Majeſty's late Miniſters to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights by the Bill brought into Parliament, which, had it paſſed into a Law, would have been a dangerous Precedent, and created a new executive Power, unknown to the Conſtitution of this Country.

We moſt ſincerely thank your Majeſty for the Diſmiſſion of thoſe Miniſters from their Employments; and aſſure your Majeſty, that we have great Confidence in the Principles of the preſent Adminiſtration, and that whilſt they purſue Meaſures conducive to the Honor of the Crown, and the true Intereſts of their Country, they may ſafely rely on the Support of the People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Durham, has been preſented to the King by General John Lambton, and John Tempeſt, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Durham, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Citizens and Principal Inhabiaants of your ancient City of Durham, do, with Hearts impreſſed with unfeigned Regard for your Royal Perſon, preſume, with the utmoſt Gratitude, to approach your Throne, humbly to thank your Majeſty for your paternal, continual, and conſtitutional Regard, Attention, and Attachment to the general Intereſts of your Dominions, wherein and wherewith your Majeſty's Royal Prerogative, political and perſonal Dignity, are inſeparably interwoven; the ſupporting whereof, at this alarming Criſis, calls for the Interpoſition and Aſſiſtance of every Man devoted to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government. Relying totally upon ſuch your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs and wiſe Councils, we do, in the moſt humble and dutiful Manner, preſume to thank your Majeſty for the Meaſures lately adopted, which we humbly conceive have tended to maintain inviolate our happy and much envied Conſtitution. We do moſt fervently and devoutly pray, that the Almighty will keep your Sacred Majeſty, our moſt gracious and beloved Queen, and all your Royal and Illuſtrious Offspring, under His moſt Holy Protection; and that your Majeſty and your Royal Progeny may reign over theſe Nations, and in the Hearts of a happy and united People, in univerſal and perpetual Peace, to the End of Time. Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the ſaid City, this Nineteenth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Addreſs of the Freemen and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, has been preſented to the King by Sir Watkin Lewes, Knt. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the City of London, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freemen and Citizens of the City of Worceſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen and Citizens of Worceſter, humbly beg Leave to approach you with this Teſtimony of our Affection to your Royal Perſon, and Government, and our ſincere Attachment to the Conſtitution of this Country, to offer our Thanks for the Change of your late Miniſtry, and for removing from your Royal Councils and Confidence, thoſe whoſe Meaſures might have been deſtructive to this Country, and whoſe Attempts were not only an Infringement of your Royal Prerogative, and a Violation of this happy Conſtitution, but tended to the total Annihilation of the Chartered Rights and Privileges of your People. Allow us to expreſs the Happineſs we individually feel under the Government of a Sovereign ſo well diſpoſed to ſupport the Liberties and Good of His Subjects. May the Bleſſings of Providence attend you; and may you always have in your Royal Confidence, thoſe whoſe Integrity may direct their Councils to the Public Good, reſtore the Credit and Commerce of the Kingdom, and relieve the Burthens occaſioned by the late unfortunate War.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, Merchants, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, has been preſented to the King by Sir Mathew White Ridley, Bart, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, Merchants, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in the County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in the Guildhall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with earneſt Aſſurances of our moſt unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to teſtify our moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Regard to the Welfare of your People, in diſmiſſing from your Councils Men actuated by Principles equally hoſtile to the juſt and neceſſary Prerogatives of the Crown, and to the Chartered Rights and Privileges of the People; and in placing the Adminiſtration of public Affairs in the Hands of others, whoſe eminent Talents and unblemiſhed Integrity juſtly entitle them to your Confidence.

We truſt your Majeſty will graciouſly be pleaſed to perſevere in ſuch Meaſures as in your Royal Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet, to preſerve the Luſtre of your Crown undiminiſhed, and to guard the Freedom of your People againſt the Deſigns of any Faction.

Permit us alſo, (zealouſly attached as we are to thoſe Principles which placed your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Family on the Throne,) to expreſs our warmeſt Approbation of and Readineſs to ſupport that proper and conſtitutional Exerciſe of the Royal Prerogative, which we deem eſſentially neceſſary to the Preſervation of our deareſt Civil Rights and Religious Liberties.

Given under our Hands this 13th Day of February, 1784.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Buckingham, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable James Grenville, and the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Buckingham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Buckingham, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt grateful Thanks for the paternal Regard your Majeſty hath ſhewn to the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, by diſmiſſing from your Councils thoſe Perſons whom, with the greateſt Concern and Indignation, we beheld attempting to violate the Chartered Rights of your Subjects, and at the ſame Time to eſtabliſh a Branch of Government, hitherto unknown to our Conſtitution.

We alſo beg Leave to teſtify our Gratitude and Satisfaction at the Choice your Majeſty hath made in ſelecting for your preſent Miniſtry, Men whoſe Virtues entitle them to the Confidence of the People, and whoſe Abilities are requiſite, and we truſt adequate, for promoting the Proſperity of your Kingdoms.

Permit us alſo to aſſure Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and that we will at all Times ſtand forth in Defence of the juſt Exerciſe of the Prerogative veſted in you by our excellent Conſtitution, and withſtand every factious Attempt that ſhall be made in Oppoſition thereto. Truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's Government, it is our hearty and ſincere Wiſh that your Majeſty may long reign in Peace over a free, united and happy People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, has been preſented to the King by Lieutenant-General Sir Henry Clinton, Knight of the Bath, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham, and of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham, and the Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough, think it our Duty, at this important Period, to expreſs our zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and the excellent Conſtitution of this Country.

We ſhould conſider ourſelves unworthy of the many Comforts we derive from theſe Bleſſings, if we neglected to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for your paternal Regard to your People, in removing from your Councils an Adminiſtration coaleſced and united with Men, to whom may be chiefly attributed the many Misfortunes that have of late Years overwhelmed the former Glory and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, and who have been the Means of leſſening that general Confidence of the People, which can alone give Stability and National Credit to any Adminiſtration.

We have felt a pleaſing Reliance in your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in having appointed a Miniſtry in whom your People may repoſe their utmoſt Truſt, and whoſe wiſe and careful Attention to our juſt Rights and Privileges do entitle them to the good Opinion of the Generality of your Subjects.

We devoutly pray, that your Majeſty may long live to receive every Conſtitutional Support from a loyal and grateful People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, has been preſented to the King by John Morgan, Eſq; Recorder of the the ſaid Town, accompanied by Jacob Stone, Eſq; Mayor, Thomas Dunant Punnett, Eſq; Deputy Recorder, Edward Aegles, William Mercer, Eſqrs. Senior Jurats, the Right Honourable Robert Peckham, Lord Mayor of the City of London, a Freeman and Inhabitant of the ſaid Town, and Flint Stacey, Eſq; Chamberlain, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, and Principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, in the Court-Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

STRONGLY impreſſed with Sentiments of the ſincereſt Duty and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government, and anxious for the Preſervation of our free Conſtitution, we beg Permiſſion to addreſs your Majeſty on the preſent critical Situation of Public Affairs.

It was with the utmoſt Concern that we beheld an Attempt made by your Majeſty's late Miniſters to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, repeatedly confirmed by Acts of Parliament; and we humbly conceive had the Bill framed by them paſſed, it would have been a dangerous Precedent, and would have created a new executive Power, unknown to our Conſtitution.

We moſt humbly thank your Majeſty for the juſt and legal Exertion of your Prerogative, in the Diſmiſſion of thoſe Miniſters, and for the Appointment of your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters, in whoſe Principles, Abilties and Integrity, we have the greateſt Confidence; and we are well convinced, that whilſt they purſue Meaſures conducive to the Honor of the Crown, and the true Intereſts of their Country, they may ſafely rely on the Support of a free and grateful People.

We farther beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that in every conſtitutional Exerciſe of your Prerogative, your Majeſty will, at all Times, receive our moſt zealous Support.

Fully ſenſible of your Majeſty's gracious Attention to the Welfare and Proſperity of all your Subjects, we moſt humbly pray that Almighty God may long preſerve your Majeſty to reign with Glory over a free happy and loyal People.

The following Addreſs of the Electors of the Borough of Ayleſbury and other Inhabitants, has been preſented to the King by John Aubrey, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for Wallingford, and John Wilkes, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Middleſex, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Electors of the Borough of Ayleſbury and other Inhabitants, in their Town Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Electors and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Ayleſbury, impreſſed with the ſincereſt Gratitude for the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, being influenced by no other Conſideration than the Proſperity of our Country, conſider it as our Duty, at the preſent alarming Moment, to approach the Throne with Aſſurances of the moſt true and faithful Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government.

Beholding, with the greateſt Admiration, your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Juſtice in diſmiſſing thoſe Men from your Councils, whoſe Conduct ſhewed ſo ſtrong a Diſpoſition to annihilate Chartered Rights, we return your Majeſty our moſt unfeigned Thanks for the Exertion of your Majeſty's Prerogative, in a Manner ſo highly beneficial to the Welfare of your People.

At the ſame Time we take the Liberty of expreſſing the Confidence we have in the Abilities and Integrity of the preſent Adminiſtration, as we ſincerely believe they poſſeſs the Hearts and Affections of your People in general.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous is the fervent Prayer of, moſt gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the reſident Freemen, and ſuch Inhabitants of the Town of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, as are Freeholders and Houſekeepers, has been preſented to the King by Charles Brett, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Town of Dartmouth, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the reſident Freemen, and ſuch Inhabitants of the Town of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, as are Freeholders or Houſekeepers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government.

We conſider the free Uſe of the legal Powers of the Crown to be eſſential to the Preſervation of our Conſtitution and Liberties, and therefore preſume to aſſure your Majeſty of our determined Reſolution to ſupport your Majeſty at all Times in the conſtitutional Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative.

We fervently pray that your Majeſty may enjoy Health and Peace, in a long Reign over a happy, free, and united People.

Given under our Hands, the Twentieth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, and in Twenty-fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, has been preſented to the King by Andrew Stuart, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Shire of Lanark, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, think it our Duty, in the preſent alarming Situation of Publick Affairs, to expreſs expreſs our moſt zealous Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and, at the ſame Time, our Veneration for the Conſtitution, as eſtabliſhed at the Revolution. From that Æra we date the Rights of the People, the Privileges of the Peerage, and the genuine Dignity and juſt Prerogative of the Crown. The Appointment to all executive Offices we have ever conſidered as your Majeſty's undoubted Right, and as ſuch we reprobate every Endeavour to deprive your Majeſty of a Power ſo ſacred, whether it is attempted by open Violence, or by the dangerous Arts of refined Policy.

Situated at a Diſtance from the Seat of Government, we feel ourſelves but little intereſted in thoſe common Struggles for Power, which naturally attend a Conſtitution formed upon ſuch Principles as that of Great-Britain, and have ever been unwilling to trouble your Majeſty with our Opinions either of Miniſters or their Meaſures: But when, at a moſt critical Period, we ſee the Execution of all Publick Buſineſs entirely prevented, and our Exiſtence as a Nation upon the Point of being ſacrificed to the Intereſts and Paſſions of a few Individuals, we think ourſelves called upon to declare the Satisfaction we felt at the Diſmiſſion of the late Miniſtry; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we have the firmeſt Reliance and moſt perfect Confidence in the Virtue, the Integrity, and Abilities of the preſent: Therefore from our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon we cannot conclude, without wiſhing your Majeſty every poſſible Succeſs, in ſupporting the juſt and undoubted Prerogative of your Crown.

Signed in Preſence, and by the unanimous Appointment of the Meeting held at Hamilton, this 20th of February, 1784.

Hamilton and Brandon, Preſes.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by his Lordſhip been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

At Glaſgow, and in the Black Bull Inn there, the 19th Day of February, 1784 Years, convened, a Number of the Præſeſes of the different Societies in and about Glaſgow, who repreſent many Thouſands of His Majeſty's loyal and well-affected Subjects, and unanimouſly agreed upon the following Addreſs.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Præſeſes of a Number of the Societies in and about Glaſgow, as repreſenting, and in Name and Behalf of many Thouſands of your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, acknowledge with the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction the Wiſdom and Excellence of our happy Conſtitution, which has veſted in your Majeſty the undoubted Authority of appointing to all the Offices of executive Government; and from the late ſalutary and conſtitutional Exertion of that Authority in the Diſmiſſion of the late Miniſtry, we have the firmeſt Aſſurance and Reliance in your Majeſty's Honour, Wiſdom, and fatherly Care, that your Majeſty will in future ſhow the ſame Attention and Anxiety to call into, and continue in, your Majeſty's Service, Men of the moſt diſtinguiſhed Abilities, of eminent Worth and Integrity, and meriting the Confidence of your Majeſty and the Nation at large; and it rejoiceth us to be able to aſſure your Majeſty, that Nineteen of Twenty of your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects entertain the ſame Sentiments with us upon this important Point.

We were lately filled with the deepeſt Regret at the unexpected Diſmemberment of this once flouriſhing Empire, occaſioned entirely by the Faction of ſelf-intereſted Men, intent upon raiſing themſelves and their Connexions, totally negligent and forgetful of the public Good: And now we are diſtreſſed to obſerve the fundamental Prerogative of our Sovereign, never hitherto abuſed, and lately ſo properly exerted, agitated and diſcourſed of in the moſt indecent Language, and attempted to be encroached upon by the moſt ungrateful of Men; wherefore we are humbly of Opinion, we would be wanting to ourſelves, and deficient in that Affection we owe to your Majeſty, were we not to declare our Deteſtation of ſuch Meaſures, and our Readineſs, at all Times, to oppoſe ſuch Attempts.

Attached to no Set of Miniſters, (or Miniſtry,) or Men, whatever, further than their Virtues and National Services call for our Eſteem and Gratitude, our ſole and ſincere Deſire is, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long, glorious, and proſperous, and that your Majeſty's Council may be always filled with able and upright Men, of your Majeſty's Choice, poſſeſſing the Confidence of your Majeſty and People.

In firm Confidence then, that your Majeſty will ſtill continue to exerciſe the ſame Care and Attention to your People's true Intereſts, we beg Leave to approach the Throne with all due Humility, and with our moſt earneſt Aſſurances, that we will, upon all Occaſions, ſupport your Majeſty with our Lives and Fortunes in the juſt Exerciſe of theſe Prerogatives, which the Wiſdom of the Conſtitution has entruſted to your Majeſty; and upon the due and uninterrupted Exerciſe of which, our Liberties, Civil and Religious, and every other Bleſſing which we can derive from the beſt of all Forms of Government, muſt depend.

Signed, in our Name, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, by Mr. John Paterſon, our Præſes.

John Paterſon, Præſes.
Robert Park, Sec.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Borough of Dundee, has been preſented to the King by Archibald Douglas, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Shire of Forfar, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Borough of Dundee.

TO approach the Throne is the Privilege and Birthright of every Britiſh Subject: Permit us then, moſt gracious Sovereign, at this alarming Criſis, when Diviſion, in its moſt threatning Forms, has invaded the high Councils of the Nation, to addreſs your Majeſty with Aſſurances of Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government, Aſſurances not the Reſult of ſlaviſh Principles, or improper Influence, but the warm Effuſions of grateful Minds, ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under the beſt of Kings.

The preſerving entire and inviolate the ſeveral Rights and Privileges intruſted by the Conſtitution to the different Branches of the Supreme Power, legiſlative and executive, is the Baſis on which we found our Hopes for a Continuance of our diſtinguiſhed political Liberties.

The Prerogative veſted by the Conſtitution in your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, we conſider equally ſacred with the Privileges of either Houſe of Parliament, and any Infringement on this Prerogative as a deadly Wound Wound to that admirable Syſtem of Government which has long been the Pride of Britons, and the Envy of the World.

While we admire your Majeſty in your political Capacity, exerting, with the Firmneſs of a Man, and the Dignity of a King, the Rights inherent in one Branch of the Conſtitution, we muſt feel and depore that Spirit of Party which ſo violently agitates another Branch, impeding the public Service in Matters on which our very Exiſtence as a Nation depends, and loſing Sight of the great End of all Government, the Happineſs of the People.

We look forward with Pleaſure to that happy Period, when theſe Convulſions ſhall ceaſe, and their dreaded Conſequences be averted. We rely on the Wiſdom of your Majeſty in the Choice of Miniſters, whoſe Integrity and Abilities may be equal to ſo great an End.

Signed by Appointment of the Council, and at the Requeſt of the Heritors, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of Dundee.

John Pitcairn, Provoſt.

Dundee, Feb. 24, 1784.

Whitehall, February 28.

The King has been pleaſed to order Letters Patent to be paſſed under the Great Seal of the Kingdom of Ireland, for granting to the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Shannon, George Viſcount Mount-Edgcumbe, and Thomas Lord Walſingham, the Office of Vice-Treaſurer of the Kingdom of Ireland.

His Majeſty has been been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Baſil Cochrane, Adam Smith, James Buchanan, and James Edgar, Eſquires, together with David Reid, Eſquire, to be Commiſſioners for the Receipt and Management of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms and other Duties in Scotland.

At Noon there was a very numerous Aſſembly of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, of both Sexes, at the Caſtle, who appeared in great Splendor, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, before whom an Ode, ſet to Muſic, was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy throughout this City.

Whitehall, February 17, 1784.

WHEREAS is has been humbly repreſented to the King, That in the Months of September and October laſt, divers Gangs of Armed Men aſſembled in the Night-Time, at the Towns of Hindon and the Devizes, in the County of Wilts, and by Force and Violence took away from certain Houſes in the ſaid Towns a large Quantity of Tea, which had been ſeized by the Officers of Exciſe, and depoſited in the ſaid Houſes, diſcharging their Fire-Arms againſt all who oppoſed him, to the great Terror of the Inhabitants.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the daring Outrages abovementioned, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt Gracious Pardon to any One of them who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commiſſioners of Exciſe do hereby promiſe a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery, to be paid by their Secretary on Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
